TEETH WITHOUT PLATES

Teeth Without a Plate

In the greatest boom of modern times, I wish you could understand the difference between having teeth with plates and teeth without a plate. One is firm, comfortable and lasts a lifetime; the other covers the roof of your mouth, destroys the best part of the taste.

One never falls down; the other often does.

SIX GOOD DRAW, COLLINS-MACK

Moosup Sports See Good Boxing—Attel Beats Kelley in Seventh—Longboat vs. Shrubbs Tonight.

A crowd of 550 enthusiastic followers of the milt game were at the ring-side Thursday evening in Milner's hall, Moosup, for the attraction of New London under the management of Jim McCahey, manager for Bill Collins of Central Village. An exciting evening of sport was enjoyed and everyone went home satisfied.

The star of the evening was a six-round go between Bill Collins and Cy-clone Mack of Philadelphia, which referee George Ploto of New London could do nothing but call a draw. McLean of Williamstown seconded Collins and Johnson of Worcester was in Mack's corner.

Mack had been touted as a wonder in the science of the milt game, but he found Collins ready for him, and the Central Village fighter worked hard at all times and was always ready to swap punches.

There was a good four-round preliminary which was called a draw, between Kid Wilson and Young James.

GRAND MARATHON TONIGHT.

Longboat Runs Shrubbs in New York—Englishman the Favorite.

Without exception, what promises to be the most sensational race in the history of American sports, will take place tonight in Madison Square garden, New York, when Al Shrubbs, the English long-distance champion, and Tom Longboat, the Canadian Indian, will settle the question of supremacy over the Marathon course of 26 miles and 385 yards.

Ever since Longboat defeated De-rando in earnest on Wednesday, quarters that the Indian is the greatest long distance runner in the world and that he could beat Shrubbs.

On the other hand Shrubbs' wonderful performance in England and this country at every distance up to and including 15 miles, has induced many of his followers to back him to the limit. They maintain that the Briton is such a wonder up to the 15 mile distance that he should have no trouble beating Longboat at his own game.

Betting on the race in New York took place in earnest on Wednesday. Longboat ruled the favorite at 7 to 5, with plenty of backers; but there was a lack of Longboat money, which was probably due to the fact that the Indian's supporters will not place their bets until they reach the trackside.

Who will win? Will it be the Indian with his 5 feet 11 inches of flesh and blood and sinew and the rest, with his 29 years, his 143 pounds and his stride of 6 feet 6 inches? He cannot be sized up, for not even he himself knows just what he can do.

Or will it be the Englishman, a veteran runner and unbeaten at his own distance? Shrubbs is lighter than Longboat, his stride is 5 feet 3 inches, short and snappy, with no waste in it.

Sports and experts who think Shrubbs will win are Peoch Duganov, Johnny Mack, C. Kilpatrick, Jere De-laney, B. Wefer, Harry Dudson, Mel Sappard and Charlie Harvey.

Bob Fowler does not think that Shrubbs can last the distance, and favors Longboat, and so do John L. Sullivan and Pat Dineen.

Simpson, Indian Runner, Lovers 15-Mile Record Outdoors.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 4.—Fred Simpson, an Indian Marathon runner, who will race Longboat and others at Madison Square garden, New York, St. Patrick's day, lowered the world's outdoor record for fifteen miles over a portion of the grand prize at the mile race course today, making the distance in 1 hour, 27 minutes, 2 4-5 seconds.

Peter Lewis Meets Young Handek.

While attending the wrestling bout in the Williamstown last week between Young Handek and Kid Wilson, Hartford, Peter Lewis of Norwich challenged the winner for a side bet of $50, which was accepted by Young Handek, the winner. The bout takes place in Baltic Friday night.

NARROW SWING OF PRICES.

Market Neglected—Waiting for Clearer Light on Situation.

New York, Feb. 4.—The professional limitations of the current stock market restrict the swing of prices to a comparatively narrow range. The condition underlying the market is clearly one of neglect and of waiting for clearer light on the situation.

The investment demand for bonds continues excellent, the large daily volume of business in existing issues at the stock exchange being constantly supplemented by successive new issues which are quickly taken up. The extent to which this process had been carried and the various inroads on the cash reserves of the banks is at last beginning to make some impression on money rates, rather to the satisfaction of the banking community.

Call loans have been at 2 1/2 per cent. today, and the maximum rose to 3 per cent., which makes the record for the new year. The renewal call of the secretary of the treasury upon the deposits made by February 23 offered the ostensible reason for the lessened inclination of lenders to accept bids recently prevailing for demand on the part of borrowers as well.

With the effect of this hardening of money rates transferred to the foreign exchange market to lower rates there, foreigners have shown an increased disposition to sell stocks in New York. Such selling was an influence in the early depression in the stock market today.

Consolidated Gas exerted a depressing influence by a drop which established a new low price for the year, seemingly prompted by the determination of the company to make a year's trial of the 80 cent gas law without further effort to contest it in litigation. The cheaper railroad rates again applied the sustaining points in the market on "deal" rumors, the Gould group being conspicuous. There was some growth in the influence on the general list of these special points of strength in the course of the day. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,780,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

RECEPTION AND DANCE FOR THE MISSES BAUCK

Delightful Time Enjoyed by Host of Friends in Olympic Hall.

Local friends of the Misses Elsa and Alma Bauck, especially the clerks in the Boston Store, where Miss Alma Bauck is employed as cashier, were present in Olympic hall Thursday evening at a delightful reception and dance arranged in their honor. In the considerable list of social affairs enjoyed by the clerks of this establishment, this one proved one of the most brilliant and thoroughly enjoyed, and the attendance of 200 spoke convincingly of the popularity of the two young ladies whom their friends were pleased to honor. In entire charge of the arrangements were Miss Gertrude Penttila and Miss Esther Oddy, who had arranged each detail with a thoughtful mind for the pleasure of each one present.

The programme opened with a grand march, in which thirty couples participated, finely led by Joseph Saunders and Miss Elsa Bauck, the second couple being William Corcoran and Miss Paula Bauck. Miss Elsa Bauck wore a becoming director's gown of blue messaline, with black hand-embroidered chenille trimmings, with gilt slippers, and carried white carnations. Miss Paula Bauck wore baby blue pongee; Miss Penttila wore cream pongee, and Miss Oddy wore white blouscloth and carried pink roses. The many
